RE: 2008 ASHRAE Student Design Project Competition

Congratulations! It is indeed my pleasure to inform you that your entry in ASHRAE's 2008 Student Design Project Competition for the HVAC System Design Category has been selected the first place winner. There were 24 (all categories) teams that made it to the regional level. Thirteen of the 24 teams competed in the HVAC System Design category. On behalf of the Society Student Activities Committee, I would like to commend you on your excellent work.

Your award includes $1500 for the team, plus a trip for one team representative to ASHRAE's Winter Meeting in Chicago in January 2009. Please note: We welcome all team members to the Plenary Session; however, the award includes travel, hotel and reimbursement of $100 for just one team member. The award presentation will be made during the Plenary Session at The Palmer House on Saturday, January 24, 2009, at 3:15 p.m. You will receive additional information regarding the Plenary Session prior to the Winter Meeting.

The team representative who attends will be required to participate in a poster session (for display and Q & A only) Sunday morning, January 25, 2009 at the Student Program. You will also receive additional information regarding this event prior to the Winter Meeting.

Please complete and return the enclosed forms with regard to publicity, attendance, and housing by Friday August 15, 2008. Information regarding registration for the meeting will be available via ASHRAE Insights and www.ashrae.org in September.

Again, congratulations! I wish you continued success and look forward to meeting you in Chicago.
