

American Society of Heating, Refrigerating and Air-conditioning Engineers Thailand Chapter 2003-2004 Activities

18 September 2003: Friendly Golf event was organized at Bangkok Golf Club, prior to official CRC event on the following day.

13 November 2003: ASHARE Thailand Chapter co-organized the annual meeting with ACAT.

18-19 November 2003: A technical seminar on technology and the design of clean room was co-organized with ACAT.

24 January 2004: Thailand Chapter's first "ASHRAE Fellow", Professor Tavee Vetchapurk, received the honorable status at the ceremony conducted during the society winter meeting in Anaheim, California, USA.

13-28 February 2004: A series of technical training course on "Design of Air Cooled Air-conditioning unit" was co-organized with ACAT.

30 April 2004: A seminar on "new code on building energy performance".

12 May 2004: A technical seminar on "Design for Absolute Moisture Control" was jointly organized with ACAT.

20 May 2004: A technical tour to the new Suvarnabhumi Airport was jointly organized with ACAT.

19-20 September 2003: Chapter Regional Conference officially began at the Grand Hotel, Bangkok. The event was a success with attendees from all chapters and society representatives.

ASHRAE representatives, Bill Coad, from Society and Thailand chapter representatives meet with Dr. Prommin, Minister of Ministry of Energy, Government of Thailand to discuss general issue on energy

29 May 2004: Mrs. Jintana Sirisantana, Thailand Chapter President 2003/04, and Mr. Piya Chongvattana, Thailand Chapter incoming President 2004/05, represents Thailand Chapter in Regional Planning Meeting (RPM) in Hong Kong.

15 June 2004: A technical tour to an air handling unit manufacturer facility was organized.

24 June 2004: A technical seminar on "new technologies for hospital" was jointly organized with ACAT.

4 December 2003: A technical seminar on "Applied Radiant Floor Cooling Technology in Suvarnabhumi Airport" was organized. The speaker was Dr. Bjarne Wilkens Olesen.

